

2019 Mills Invitational Oct 4, 2019

Dear Friends and Community Members,

It is with great pleasure that Palomar College and San Diego State University invite you to the 2019 Aztec/Mills Invitational.

We have worked very hard to ensure optimal schedules to accommodate teams traveling from Palomar to SDSU.

This year the tournaments feature:

- 3 IE Tournaments (Fri, Sat, and Sun)
 - 4 prelim rounds of IPDA and NFA LD with 2 Elims (Fri)
 - 6 prelim rounds of NPDA debate (Sat-Sun, breaking to doubles if warranted).
 - 6 prelim rounds of WUDC “Worlds” debate (Sat and Sun)
 - 5 prelim rounds for CEDA/NDT debate (Sat and Sun)
- Open and Novice divisions will be offered in all respective events, where warranted.

Mills Invitational Details

Registration Mills Tournament

Registration on Friday will take place in H-212 at 8:30am.

General Guidelines

Tournament Rules – AFA and NFA regulations will govern their respective divisions, unless specified elsewhere in this invitation.

PLEASE NOTE :In IEs, no person who has competed for eight (8) or more semesters or has competed at a collegiate national tournament in four (4) different years may compete.

For a third year we will be hosting the Mills Invitational on Friday at Palomar College and the Aztec Invitational will be at SDSU on Saturday and Sunday.

Divisions

The SDSU Aztec/Mills Invitational will offer novice and open divisions of all reasonably populated IEs and debate events (see policy BELOW on collapsing divisions with less than 6 competitors).

Students are considered to be novices in individual events when:

1. They are in their first year (defined as first two semesters of collegiate or high school individual event competition), and
2. They have not placed third or higher in a similar event (Public Address, Interpretation or Limited Preparation) two or more times in any division including high school. For example, a student may be novice in interpretation, but be open in public address events.

3. "Open" will be reserved for competitors of any year or level (assuming they are still eligible by national standards), and does not require unique qualification.

Entry Procedure-- Entries will be accepted electronically at <http://www.forensicstournament.net>. Registration must be completed by 11:00 pm on Tuesday October 2, 2019. After that, email all changes to mcookwhearty@palomar.edu.

Entry Limits- Participants will be limited to a maximum of 3 events per pattern in both tournaments. It is the sole responsibility of the participants to check in to rooms on time, write names and school codes on the board, communicate with judges, and make it to rounds within the time allotted. Late arrivals who have not "checked-in" will be subject to an automatic drop. Competitors can compete in the debate tournament or IE's. You cannot do both.

IE Patterns/Scheduling –

Pattern A = EXT, INFO, ADS, PRO, POE Pattern B = IMP, PER, CA, DI, POI, DUO Pattern C = IPDA/NFA LD

Financial Information

Fees will be assessed at noon on Wednesday, October 2th. In addition to a $25.00 school fee, the following fees will be assessed for students competing in the tournament:

1. $10.00 per IE slot.
2. $65.00 per Team Debate slot (BP, NPDA). 3. $ 25.00 per IPDA or LD competitor.

All checks, cash, or money orders for should be made payable to: Palomar College for the Mills portion of swing (Friday at Palomar).

Judge/Critic/Adjudicator Information

Judging Commitment

- One judge can cover two IPDA debaters –OR– up to five IE slots per pattern.
- The same judge cannot cover both Individual Events and IPDA Debate. Please specify whether a judge should be placed in the IPDA pool OR the IE pool when registering.

Please note:

- Debate judges are needed through the second elimination round, and one round beyond the squad's elimination.
- IE judges are committed through finals.

Meeting this commitment is essential for these tournaments to be able to function.

Available Judges

We REALLY want you to bring your judges and will pay any of your judges $15.00 per round for judging beyond their commitment. Please alert us to judges who are willing to judge beyond their commitment.

Uncovered judge fees will be assessed on the following basis:

1. $20.00 per IE slot

2. $75.00 per IPDA slot
Please bring judges!

Tournament Specifics

Limited Preparation Events

This year, impromptu will be “AFA-style,” with the same two quotations used for each new round, with speakers waiting outside the room for their turn to enter and perform. Additionally, extemporaneous speakers will be allowed full use of the internet, and not restricted to hardcopy, or digital files.

Policy on Collapsing Divisions

If there are fewer than six (6) entries in an event, it may be collapsed into the next highest division. If this occurs, top novices will be recognized at the Awards Ceremony.

ELIMINATION ROUNDS/IE’s

Criteria for Elimination Round – IN NOVICE, any event with less than seven (7) contestants may not have a final round. For events with 7 or more competitors competing in all preliminary rounds, a final round will be held. In open division, a final round of less than seven (7) contestants will STILL be held in each event.

Advancement to Elimination Rounds – No more than half of the field will be advanced to finals. Students will be rank ordered first by lowest cumulative rankings, and then by the highest cumulative ratings.

Advancement in Elimination Rounds - Students will be rank ordered first by lowest cumulative rankings in the final round, then by judge’s preference and finally by the highest cumulative ratings in the final round and preliminary rounds.

AWARDS

- All finalists for IEs and all advancing debate will receive awards for each respective tournament.
- Additionally, sweepstakes awards will be issued to the top 2 institutions for debate and the top 2 institutions for IEs. These awards will be given separately for 2-year and 4-year divisions.
- Combined tournament sweepstakes awards will be offered for top 2-year school and top 4-year school competing in both tournaments.
- Finally, a limited amount of speaker awards will be issued for all debate events, with no less than the top-5 speakers in each respective division, recognized.
